Code of Conduct Policy

Document Number: EM-OR-T&C-015
Effective from 10th June 2025

Completion of the following signatures implies that the signatory has read, understood, and agrees with the content of this document.

Signatories Details			Signature and date
Author	Name	Lipika Sonowal	Submitted on 5th June 2025
	Designation	Group Manager, Human Resources
Reviewer	Name	Anthony Raju	Reviewed on 8th June 2025
	Designation	Associate Manager- Procurement
Approver	Name	Pradipta Banerjee	Approved on 10th June 2025
	Designation	Chief People Officer

Version Control Table

Ver. No	Amended date	Amended by	Review date	Reviewed by	Approved date	Approved by
1.0	08-07-2023	Lipika Sonowal	25-07-2023	Sophia Varghese	10-08-2023	Pramod Chonamkandathil
1.1	9-07-2024	Lipika Sonowal	23-07-2024	Smita Sinha	31-07-2024	Pramod Chonamkandathil
1.2	29-11-2024	Lipika Sonowal	02-12-2024	Sophia Varghese	13-01-2025	Pradipta Banerjee
1.3	22-05-2025	Lipika Sonowal	05-06-2025	Anthony Raju	10-06-2025	Pradipta Banerjee

Document Revision List

Ver. No	Description of Changes
1.0	Modified the content into new template. Revised and updated the content on process in alignment with the current disciplinary policy
1.1	Annual Revision. The content has been revised and restructured for improved clarity and coherence with earlier Anti-Corruption, Conflict of Interest, and Whistle Blower Policy. These policies are
1.2	consolidated Updated Ethics Council email process for confidential issue reportingunder the umbrella of the Code of Conduct.
1.3	Updated Conflict of Interest Declaration Process

Table of Contents

1. Purpose 4
2. Scope 4
3. Abbreviations and Definitions 4
4. Roles and Responsibilities 4
5. Accountability 5
6. General Principles of the Code of Conduct 5
6.1 Ethical Behaviour 5
6.2 Compliance with Laws and Regulations 5
6.3 Respect and Fair Treatment 5
6.4 Confidentiality and Privacy 6
6.5 Conflict of Interest 7
6.6 Anti-Corruption and Bribery 7
6.7 Professionalism 8
6.8 Workplace Safety 8
6.9 Environmental Responsibility 9
6.10 Accountability and Integrity 9
6.11 Using social media wisely 9
6.12 Adherence to Policies 10
7. Whistleblower Guidelines 10
7.1 Protection of Whistleblower 10
7.2 Types of concern to report 10
7.3 Procedure for Reporting 11
7.3.1 Reporting Mechanism 11
7.3.2 Investigation process 11
7.3.3 Disciplinary Action 12
8. Training 12
9. Storage, Control and Archival of documents 12
10. Revision of document 12
11. Retirement of document 12

1. Purpose

Emids Technologies Private Limited, along with its global affiliates (collectively referred to as "the Company"), is dedicated to upholding the highest standards of ethical conduct, integrity, and professionalism in all its business dealings.

This Code of Conduct Policy establishes a consistent, company-wide framework to guide ethical behaviour across all geographies and functions. It aims to foster a culture grounded in trust, mutual respect, and accountability, reinforcing the Company's strong commitment to lawful, responsible, and values-driven conduct.

As a global policy, it applies to all employees, contractors, and stakeholders across Emids' locations and subsidiaries. Where necessary, region-specific supplements may be developed in consultation with local HR teams to ensure alignment with applicable laws and regulatory requirements.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees including full-time, part-time, trainees, interns, contractors, consultants, and authorized representatives across all entities and locations of Emids.

3. Abbreviations and Definitions

Acronyms/Terms	Definition / Description
Code of Conduct	Guidelines outline acceptable behaviors and practices within Emids.
Misconduct	Any policy, ethical, or legal violation that may lead to disciplinary action.
Whistleblower	Individual who reports misconduct, illegal activities, or policy violations.
Complainant	Individual filing a complaint regarding misconduct.
Conflict of interest	A situation where an individual's personal interests could interfere with their professional responsibilities and decision-making.
Insider Trading	Buying or selling company stock based on non-public material information.
Disciplinary Action	Measures taken in response to policy violation.

4. Roles and Responsibilities

Roles	Responsibilities
Employee	Responsible for adhering to the company's Code of Conduct policies and procedure. They should report any violations or concerns promptly and ensure their actions align with the company's ethical standards.
Reporting Manager	Monitoring and managing employees' conduct as per policy guidelines and implementing the appropriate disciplinary procedures in case of violations.
Roles	Responsibilities

Talent & Culture Business Partner	The Talent & Culture Business Partner is responsible for providing guidance on ethical behavior and legal compliance. They must investigate reported misconduct while ensuring confidentiality and recommend and implement necessary disciplinary actions.
Committee	Review the disciplinary cases referred to the committee based on guidelines of Code of Conduct and other related policies. They are responsible for conducting thorough investigations of reported misconduct and ensuring the fair and consistent application of disciplinary actions.
Management	Promoting a culture of ethical behavior and compliance within the organization. They must ensure employees understand and follow the Code of Conduct, address any violations, and implement appropriate disciplinary actions as necessary.

5. Accountability

The Talent & Culture team in tandem with the management team is accountable for implementing and ensuring adherence to the Code of Conduct Policy. It involves holding all stakeholders accountable for their roles in ensuring the fair and consistent implementation of the Code of Conduct Policy, as well as maintaining accurate records.

6. General Principles of the Code of Conduct

6.1 Ethical Behaviour

- Always act honestly, fairly, and with integrity in all interactions, both internally with colleagues and externally with clients, vendors, and stakeholders.
- Uphold the reputation and interests of the Company in all business dealings.
- Do not engage in theft, fraud, or any form of dishonesty related to the Company, its clients, contractors, agents, vendors, or suppliers' business or property.

6.2 Compliance with Laws and Regulations

- Adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, and industry standards relevant to your role and responsibilities.
- Employees must disclose any criminal proceedings against them to their Talent and Culture Business Partner.
- Working from a country other than the approved base location is prohibited. In exceptional cases, employees must obtain explicit permission from the Company before working from an alternate country or region.
- For clarification on work-related legal requirements, consult the Company's legal team or notify the Talent and Culture Business Partner to ensure appropriate routing and guidance.

6.3 Respect and Fair Treatment

- Treat all colleagues, clients, customers, and stakeholders with respect, dignity, and fairness, ensuring an inclusive and collaborative environment.

- Value and respect differences in race, gender, age, culture, and background, promoting an inclusive workplace for all.
- Always maintain respectful communication, avoiding offensive language, discriminatory remarks, or inappropriate behaviour.
- Ensure all employees have equal access to opportunities based on merit, without discrimination or bias in hiring, promotions, or compensation.
- Address disagreements or conflicts calmly and professionally, seeking resolution through open dialogue and mutual understanding.
- Protect the privacy of colleagues, clients, and stakeholders by safeguarding confidential and sensitive information shared within the workplace.
- Uphold a strict zero-tolerance policy for any form of harassment, ensuring that all employees are treated with dignity and respect.
- Encourage collaboration, mutual support, and open communication, recognizing that teamwork is essential for organizational success.
- Refrain from behavior that is unbecoming of our Company's employee or detrimental to Company's reputation.
- Failure to cooperate with management or refusal to follow lawful directives, including neglecting duties or disruptive behaviour, will be treated as insubordination and addressed according to Company's procedures and local labour laws.
- Cultivate a workplace that fosters growth, supports personal development, and ensures everyone feels valued and respected.

6.4 Confidentiality and Privacy

- Ensure that confidential and sensitive information is shared only with authorized individuals and is always handled securely.
- Adhere to all relevant data privacy regulations applicable in each geography of operation, including but not limited to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) applicable in the European Union, the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) in the United States, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) in the United States, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) in Canada, the Data Privacy Act of 2012 in the Philippines, and the Ley Federal de Protección de Datos Personales en Posesión de los Particulares in Mexico.
  Employees should consult their local Talent and Culture Business Partner to understand specific obligations and compliance requirements under applicable local laws.
- Ensure that confidential information is securely stored and transmitted, using encrypted channels and authorized systems to prevent unauthorized access.
- Access to confidential information should be restricted to those who require it for their role, and unnecessary exposure should be avoided.
- Refrain from any actions that violate Company's privacy and information security policies, including theft, misuse, sale, disclosure, or damage to both tangible and intangible assets.
- Each employee is responsible for safeguarding Company, client, and third-party confidential information, both online and offline, including during transportation or communication.
- Ensure that confidentiality agreements are in place with any third-party vendors, contractors, or consultants who may access sensitive information.
- Promptly report any suspected data breach or potential exposure of confidential information to the appropriate department or authorities, in accordance with Company policies.

- Follow proper procedures for the retention and secure disposal of sensitive documents, including physical and digital records, to minimize the risk of unauthorized access or data leakage.
- Incorporate privacy considerations into all business processes, projects, and systems, ensuring data protection principles are part of daily operations.
- Participate in regular training on confidentiality, privacy, and information security policies to stay informed about best practices and legal obligations.

6.5 Conflict of Interest

- All individuals participating in the vendor selection process are required to submit a signed "Conflict of Interest declaration" to the requisitioner.
- The declaration form is available in the Policy section of MyWork Hub and must be submitted to Procurement team at procurement@emids.com prior to the vendor selection process.
- Disclose any financial or personal interests that may conflict with Company's interests or affect impartial decision-making.
- Notify the Company if you or an immediate family member has a financial interest in a competitor, vendor, supplier, or business partner.
- Update disclosures if any new potential conflicts arise during your employment.
- Refrain from participating in activities or investments that compete with Company or could influence business decisions.
- Avoid participating in negotiations, decision-making, or contract discussions where a personal or financial conflict exists.
- Do not use Company resources, confidential information, or business opportunities for personal gain.
- Ensure that business decisions are made in the best interest of the Company, not for personal benefit.
- Do not accept gifts, entertainment, travel, meals, or favours from vendors, clients, or business partners that could influence decision-making.
- Maintain transparency and integrity in all dealings that could pose a conflict of interest with Company's business objectives.
- Conduct all business dealings ethically, objectively, and in compliance with laws, regulations, and Company policies.
- Disclose any close personal relationships with suppliers, clients, or business partners that could create a conflict.
- Ensure that all Company transactions are conducted fairly, transparently, and without favouritism or improper influence.
- Seek guidance from your Talent & Culture Business Partner if you are unsure about a potential conflict of interest.
- Follow all Company policies and procedures regarding conflicts of interest and comply with applicable laws and regulations.

6.6 Anti-Corruption and Bribery

- Refrain from taking or giving bribes or illegal gratification in connection with the Company's business or for personal gain.

- Do not engage in corrupt practices, including offering or receiving improper payments, favours, or benefits.
- Do not offer, give, or accept gifts, travel, meals, lodging, entertainment, gift cards, loans, or non-arm's length transactions if they are intended to influence business decisions.
- Avoid making charitable or political donations in exchange for business favours.
- Do not offer or accept employment, business, or investment opportunities to improperly influence decisions or gain an unfair advantage.
- Avoid unauthorized occupation, use, or sub-letting of the Company's land, premises, or quarters.
- Do not misuse Company resources, funds, or confidential information for personal benefit.
- Adhere to all applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations in every jurisdiction where the Company operates.
- Conduct all business dealings fairly, transparently, and free from favouritism or improper influence.
- Ensure that all financial transactions are properly recorded and documented to prevent corruption or fraud.
- Do not engage third parties (such as agents, consultants, or vendors) to offer or receive bribes or improper payments on behalf of the Company.
- Conduct due diligence on third-party relationships to prevent indirect involvement in corrupt practices.
- Report any suspected or known incidents of bribery, corruption, or unethical financial dealings to the appropriate authority within the Company.
- Participate in anti-corruption training and awareness programs to understand compliance obligations.
- Ensure familiarity with the Company’s anti-bribery policies to uphold ethical standards.

6.7 Professionalism

- Follow Company’s guidelines on attire, communication, and behavior both in the workplace and in external engagements.
- Refrain from activities such as alcohol consumption, drug abuse, and solicitation during working hours.
- Use company property/equipment exclusively for authorized business purposes.

6.8 Workplace Safety

- Comply with safety policies, procedures, and protocols to maintain a safe working environment.
- Familiarize yourself with the Company's emergency procedures, including evacuation plans, first aid protocols, and contact information for emergency services.
- Promote and support initiatives that encourage employee health and well-being, including mental health awareness and wellness programs.
- Refrain from any actions or behaviours that put yourself, colleagues, or the workplace at risk, including negligence or failure to follow safety protocols.

- Report any safety concerns or hazards promptly to Admin Facilities or to their Talent & Culture Business Partner.
- Participate in regular safety training sessions and stay informed about best practices for workplace safety and risk management.

6.9 Environmental Responsibility

- Commit to sustainable practices that minimize environmental impact, including reducing energy consumption, waste, and carbon emissions.
- Support initiatives aimed at minimizing environmental impact and promoting sustainability.
- Actively engage in green initiatives and environmental programs that benefit both the Company and the broader community.
- Comply with environmental laws and regulations applicable to Company's operations.
- Implement and actively participate in measures to reduce the Company's carbon footprint.

6.10 Accountability and Integrity

- Act honestly, ethically, and with integrity in all business dealings and relationships.
- Ensure that all decisions, especially those affecting the Company or its stakeholders, are made transparently, with honesty, and in alignment with Company policies and values.
- Take responsibility for both individual and team actions, recognizing that every decision made reflects on the integrity of the Company.
- Report any dual employment violations. Both the violating employee and those aware of the violation who fail to report it will be held accountable.
- Ensure all submitted documents, including certificates and IDs, are truthful and accurate. Providing false or misleading information will result in disciplinary action. Always verify the accuracy before submission.

6.11 Using social media wisely

- Avoid posting or sharing inappropriate, offensive, or confidential content that could damage the company's reputation or violate company policies.
- Refrain from addressing the media without prior approval from the Company and adhering to the Company's security policies when sharing information about the Company or its clients in public domains.

- Respecting copyright and intellectual property rights when sharing content on social media platforms.
- Being mindful of the time and place of social media usage, especially during working hours or when representing the Company in any capacity.

6.12 Adherence to Policies

- Comply with all Emids' policies and procedures, encompassing conduct, leave and attendance, security, and use of Emids' resources.
- Understand that non-compliance with Emids' policies may lead to disciplinary actions, potentially including termination.
- Stay informed and compliant by keeping updated with Emids' policies.
- Cooperate fully with internal audits or investigations concerning policy adherence, providing accurate information as necessary.

7. Whistleblower Guidelines

7.1 Protection of Whistleblower

The company is committed to protecting whistleblowers from retaliation, discrimination, or adverse employment consequences because of their report. Whistleblowers' identities will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with legal requirements and the need to conduct a thorough investigation.

7.2 Types of concern to report

- Breach of company policies
- Bribery and corruption (including acceptance of gifts and entertainment)
- Criminal activities or fraud
- Concurrent employment
- Conflict of interest
- Discrimination
- Harassment of any nature (including sexual harassment, victimization or bullying)
- Inappropriate use of social media
- Incorrect financial reporting
- Insider trading
- Misappropriation of Company assets or resources
- Mishandling of confidential information
- Misuse of authority
- Financial fraud of any nature
- Violation of the environment, health and safety guidelines
- Working for competitors or suppliers
- Any other serious misconduct that could harm the Company or its stakeholders

7.3 Procedure for Reporting

7.3.1 Reporting Mechanism

The Company encourages employees to report concerns through any of the following channels they find most appropriate:

- Directly to their reporting manager or skip-level managers
- To their Talent & Culture Business Partner (TnCBP)
- Employees may report concerns confidentially via writing to ethicscouncil@emids.com
- For anonymous reporting, employees can call 000-800-9190-963 or visit www.emids.ethicspoint.com

Workplace Harassment or Discrimination Issues:

Employees who experience or witness any form of harassment or discrimination should raise their concerns through the appropriate reporting mechanism available in their respective country of employment. In India, employees should refer to Emids POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) policy, which outlines the process for reporting concerns to the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). In other geographies, employees may contact their local Talent and Culture Business Partner, who will assist in ensuring that any concerns are addressed in compliance with the respective national labour and anti-discrimination laws. This includes coordination with legally mandated bodies such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in the United States, designated officers or the Committee on Decorum and Investigation (CODI) in the Philippines, and internal processes aligned with human rights codes in Canada. Alternatively, concerns can be reported confidentially by writing to ethicscouncil@emids.com.

7.3.2 Investigation process

- Upon receiving a report, the Company will initiate a thorough, confidential and impartial investigation conducted by the appropriate team or council.
- This process will aim to gather all relevant facts and evidence to understand the situation fully and ensure fairness in the resolution.
- The employee charged with misconduct will be provided an opportunity to address and defend the charges made against them.
- Employees have the right to appeal the outcome of the investigation. Appeals may be escalated to the next level of management or an independent body, depending on the severity and complexity of the case.
- The Company has a strict non-retaliation policy. Employees who report misconduct in good faith or cooperate in investigations will not face retaliation or negative consequences because of their actions.
- Throughout the investigation, confidentiality will be maintained to protect all parties involved. Information will only be disclosed on a need-to-know basis to preserve the integrity of the process.

- Once the investigation is concluded, the Company will determine appropriate corrective actions or disciplinary measures based on the findings. These actions will be consistent with Company policies and local laws.

7.3.3 Disciplinary Action

- The Company reserves the right to initiate appropriate disciplinary procedures if an employee is found to have violated the Code of Conduct.
- The nature of the disciplinary action and any associated penalties will be determined based on the facts and circumstances of the case. This will consider factors such as the severity of the alleged misconduct, previous incidents (if any), and any mitigating or aggravating circumstances.
- All actions will be in line with the Company's Disciplinary Policy and Severity Matrix or the applicable local regulations in each geography.

8. Training

The Talent & Culture team provides training and support to employees on understanding Code of Conduct Policy and policy's provisions, guidelines, and procedures accurately.

9. Storage, Control and Archival of documents

- Code of Conduct and all other related policies and forms can be accessed by all employees through the Policy section in MyWork Hub.
- All documents related to disciplinary actions, including complaints, investigations, and actions taken, are treated with the utmost confidentiality and not disclosed to unauthorized individuals.

10. Revision of document

The Code of Conduct policy will be reviewed and revised as necessary to address any changes in process requirements, ensuring it remains aligned with organizational needs and compliance standards.

11. Retirement of document

Any exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Chief People Officer. Management reserves the right to update or revoke this policy at any time, with the approval of the Chief People Officer.